PREPARING

FOR THE SPACE AGE THROUGH

Trevecca College provides opportunity for study in many fields. It affords a background of general knowledge and a basis for specialized training. The courses of instruction are varied and numerous, constituting a well-rounded program through study, research, and classroom attendance. Spiritual learning is integrated with the school work.

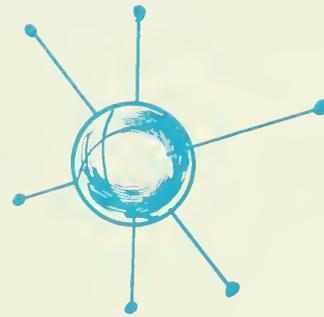

It is the privilege of each student to choose his field of study. Counseling and guidance are provided by the administration to meet the needs and desires of the student in all areas of interest. The combined planning of faculty and students trains the students effectively in skills, understanding, and appreciation of the areas of society to be served in the practice of their professions.

CONCENTRATION

• CONSECRATION TO CHRISTLIKENESS

An important and vital part of Trevecca College life is the devotion of the students to daily Christian living and giving. Each day at chapel time the students leave their studies for a time of instruction and reverence of spiritual values. Every class is opened with prayer. More personal spiritual help, counseling, and witnessing is possible through the Saturday night dorm meetings. Opportunities for Christian service are provided by the Christian Workers Association as students carry the gospel to workhouses, jails, hospitals, juvenile court, and state institutions. To be more Christlike is the goal of each student.

Accomplishment is reaching the goal which one has set for himself. It is desired by all, and rightly so. From the time of entrance into college many students "set their caps" to attain certain goals. Some reach these, but they do it only by consistently pushing ahead. Nothing is obtained easily, and if it were, it would not be worth the effort. Those who have attained this triumph are to be commended.

COMMENDATION FOR ACCOMPLISHMENT

COOPERATION WITH OTHERS

Chatter in the dorm, the laboratories, and the T Room . . . discussions in the theology classes and the cafeteria . . . devotion during chapel and prayer meetings . . . all involve cooperation with one another. A challenge is sent to each student to be at his best—to attain a harmony with his environment and fellow classmates which will enable him to develop his personality and increase his powers of communication; thus the fellowship at Trevecca prepares the student to be a better person for usefulness in the service of God and man.

Trevecca's three athletic societies—Alpha, Beta, and Delta—offer the basis for the intramural program. The intramural athletic program gives many persons a chance to participate in the games. The fine rivalry challenges players and spectators alike to high interest, good sportsmanship and keen perception. These qualities all carry over to make for better living.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

TREVECCA NAZARENE COLLEGE
Office of the President

Students of TNC
Nashville 10, Tennessee

1962

Dear Students:

I commend those who are responsible for the 1962 annual for their effort to bring up to date the meaning of the word DARDA—the Pearl of Wisdom. You have pictured the launching base of something more important than space craft. The successful exploration of space, the discovery of a much-needed supplement of America's gold supply, or the discovery of sources of food to feed the hungry billions of the world are not the Pearl of great price. The Pearl of great price is that which satisfies the hungry, sin-sick souls of earth, and guarantees a title to a mansion that Jesus has said He was going to prepare for His disciples.

The value of this book is not altogether the responsibility of its authors; the readers of this book have a responsibility for its success. Reading is not only getting thought from the printed page; it is also bringing thought to the printed page. So, dear readers, you should bring some good thoughts to these pages. Look at the pictures with the same thoughts as the man who stood at the top of Lookout Mountain and said, "It is wonderful—it is the climax of beautiful mountains, of valleys, and of streams."

May those who read this book realize that the goal of Trevecca College is twofold—first, to be prepared to cope with the problems of an ever-changing space age; and, at the same time keep our faith anchored in the "Rock of Ages" who is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

Sincerely,
Dr. A. B. Mackey,
President

Dr. Mackey is in demand as a speaker.

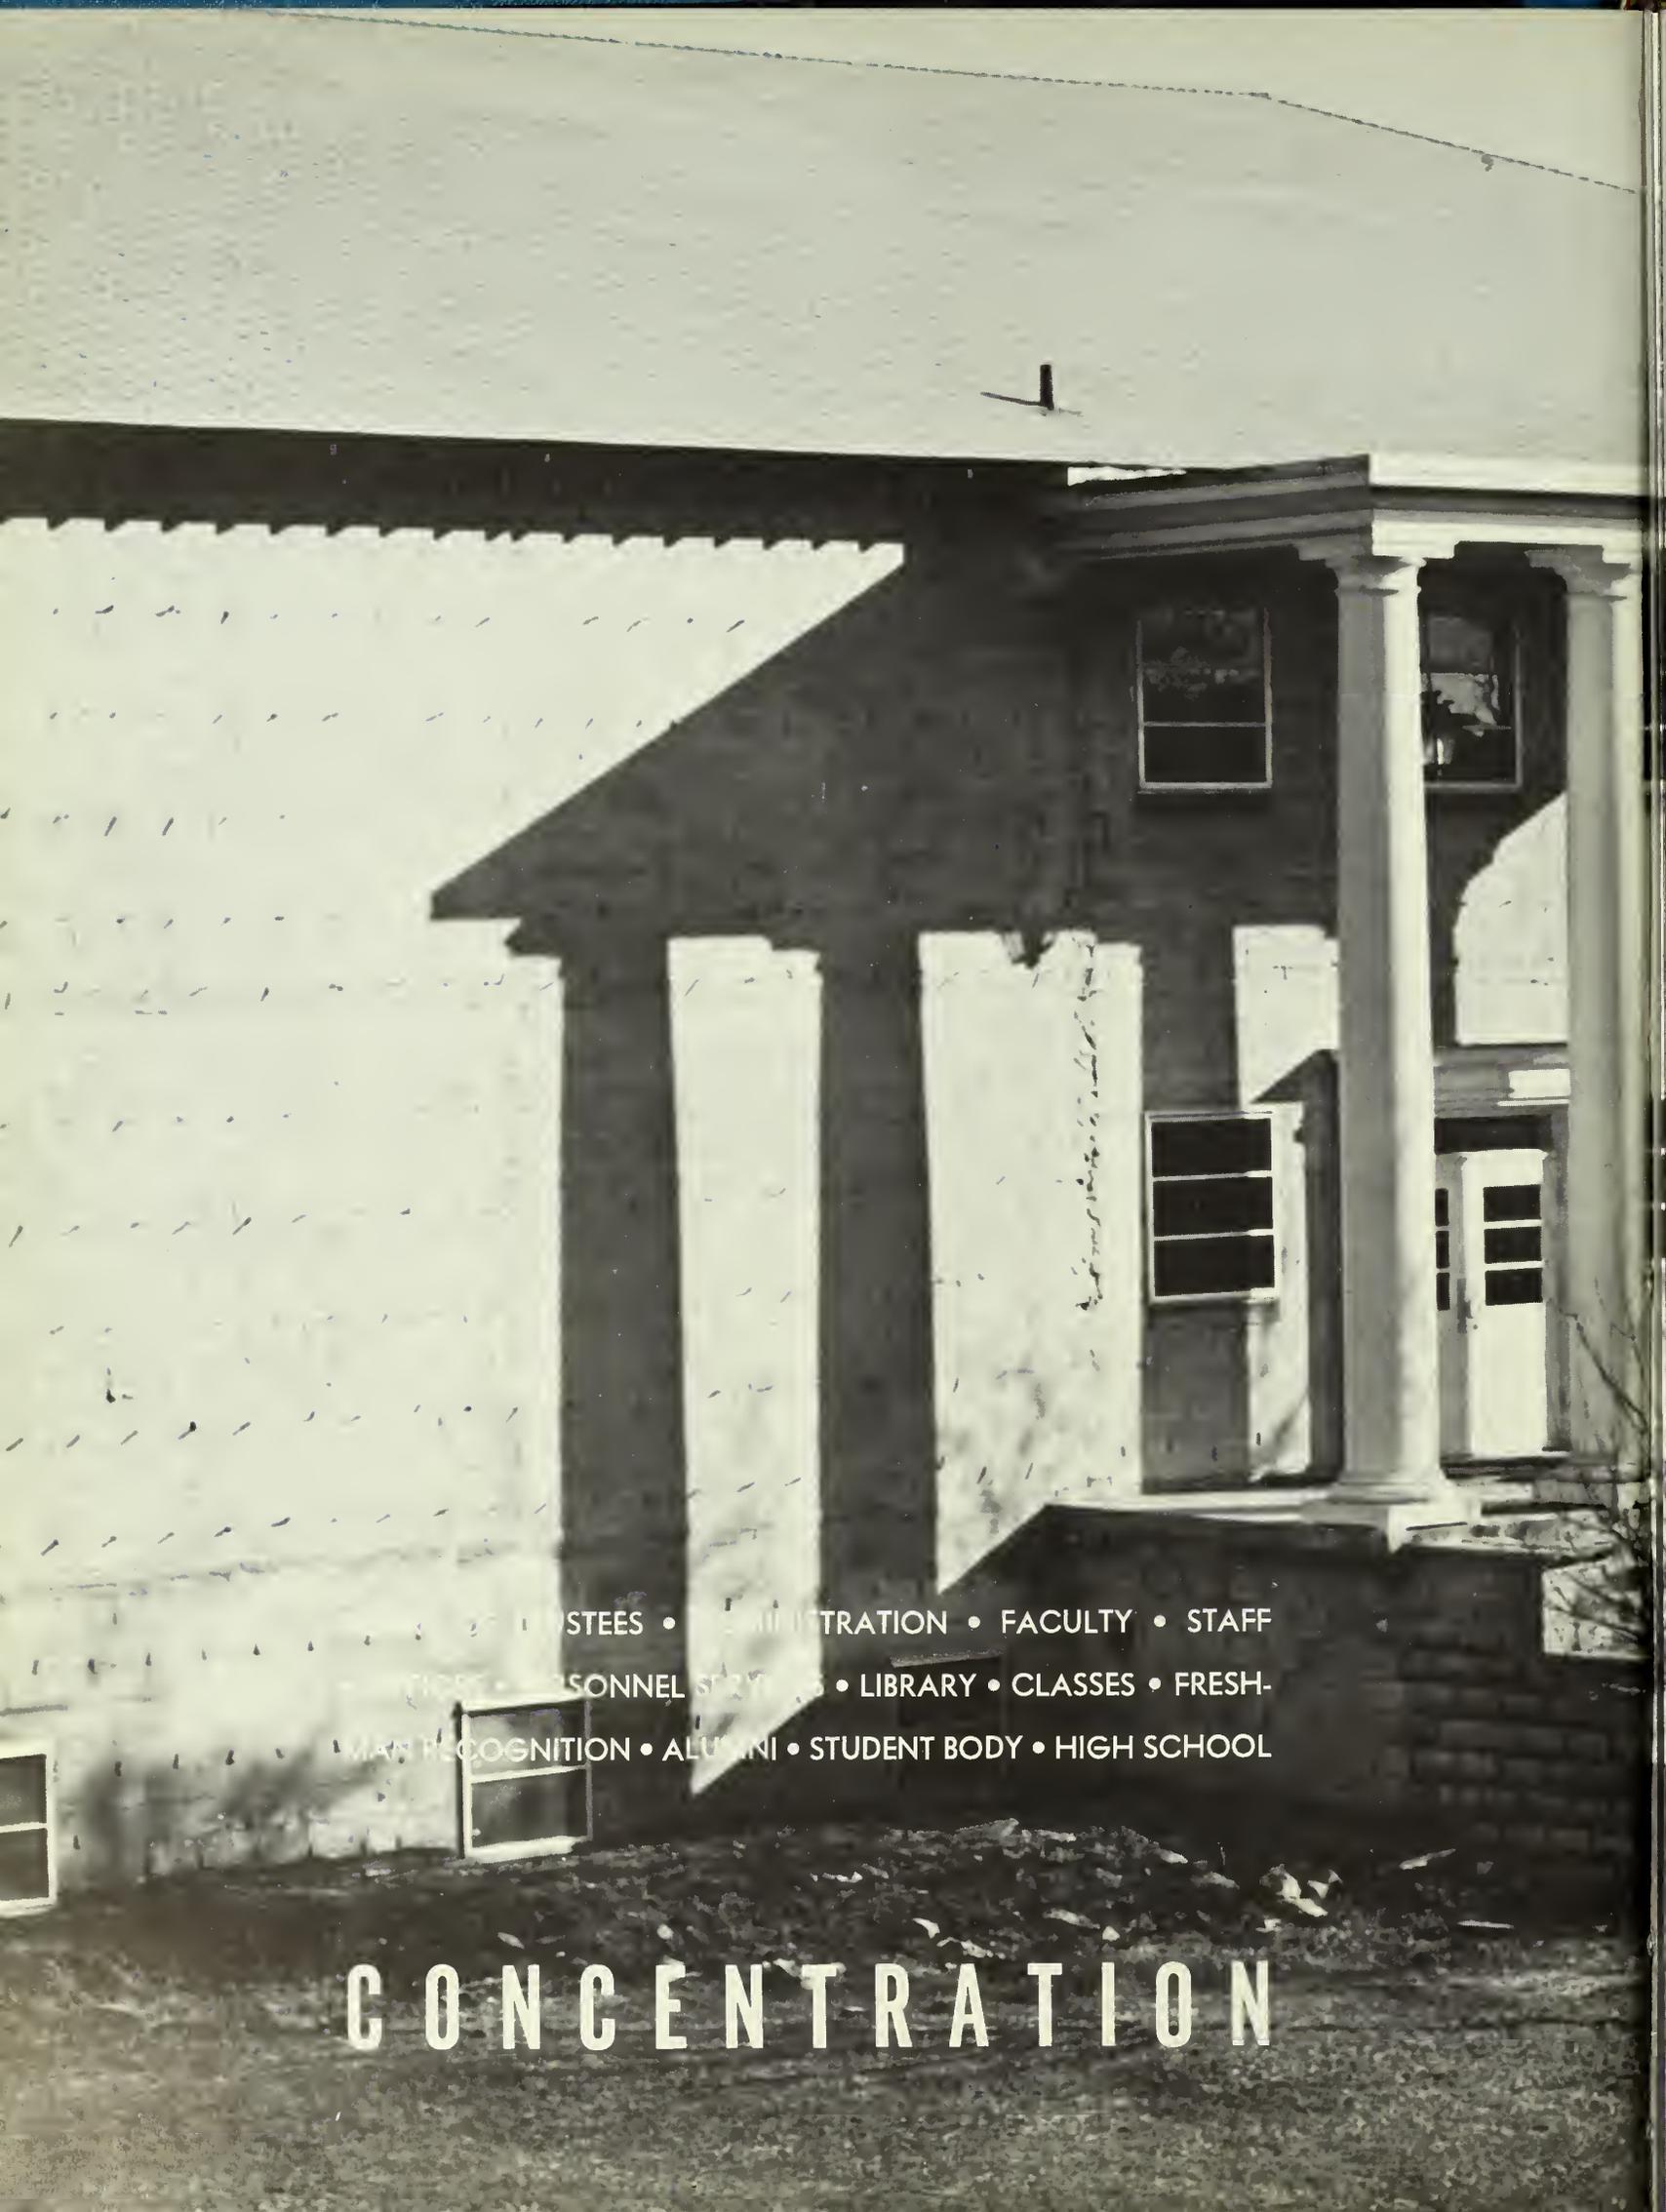

The Mackeys prepare to leave for Europe.

THE MACKEY LIBRARY

The Mackey Library stands in honor of one who has dedicated his life to Trevecca. This, the newest of our buildings, dedicated June, 1961, is named in honor of President A. B. Mackey who has set goal after goal for our college and then worked hard to reach each goal he has set.

The Mackey Library consists of three floors. The ground floor, for the present, will house temporary faculty offices, a large classroom, additional stacks, and an informal room with kitchenette for faculty and faculty groups. The main floor provides space for a large reading room which seats one hundred eleven. There are eleven individual study tables. Beyond this room is found the stacks area in which are eight study carrels. The circulation desk, with reserved book section adjoining, is accessible from the lobby. Opposite the stacks at the south end of the building are the staff room, offices for the librarians, work area and room with seating space for seventy-eight. There are also rooms for music listening equipment, historical material on Trevecca and the Southeastern Zone, and conferences. Additional stacks area occupies a large portion of this floor.

The entire floor area has more than twenty-two thousand square feet of space.

FRESHMAN RECOGNITION

Freshmen Orientation activities, under the direction of Professor K. W. Phillips, began officially on Thursday, September 14, 1961.

After a brief devotional service, the freshmen reported to the library and cafeteria for the College Qualification Test and the Cooperative English Test. A Campus Life Conference was conducted that evening in the Fine Arts Auditorium, with dormitory house meetings after Professor Leon Chambers, Dean of Students, addressed the freshmen.

On Friday, September 15, after the usual devotional service, the freshmen took the Iowa Silent Reading Test and Kuder Preference Record under the direction of Dr. Lewis Pennington, and the Bible Survey Test under the direction of Dr. Homer J. Adams. Interviews were conducted in the library for educational counseling and guidance on trial schedules. Choir and chorus auditions were held in the Fine Arts Building by Professor Ramon Unruh and Miss Barbara McClain. On that evening a faculty reception for the freshmen was given.

Education counseling and choir and chorus auditions took place on Saturday. The faculty gave the students a picnic supper on Hardy Green. An open-air service, with John Clayton, president of the Christian Workers Association, in charge, was held Saturday night. Dr. W. M. Greathouse, Dean of Religion, brought a message of inspiration.

Sunday, September 17, was a busy day for Christian workers, with the new freshmen taking active part in Christian work.

Monday, September 18, was registration day for one hundred seventy-two new freshmen.

TREVECCA ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Trevecca College has a wonderful group of alumni. This is especially evidenced at reunion time—no matter where or when they meet. Everyone is young when with former classmates.

Nobody knows for certain what makes Trevecca reunions so much fun. Whatever it is, it seems to work some kind of magic. A greeting jars memories, and a handshake can whisk you back to another decade.

It is this spirit that brings alumni back to the banquet each year, that makes them want to be here. They come back to laugh and talk and remember when. They come back to see how far they have gone away, to see how much they have changed. They come back to see their youth, because a part of it is always here at T.N.C.

STUDENT BODY

Many students come to college without knowing exactly what their life's work will be. However, after a year or two, one soon decides. The next step, after the decision has been reached, is preparation for the chosen field. Our students are preparing for varied positions as you can see from the table at the right.

CHAPEL EXERCISES

Daily instruction and blessing are our privileges as the truths of the gospel are presented in word and song during the chapel hour. Songs of praise are sung; a spontaneous testimony is given, and others follow; the preached word is anointed and blessed and our hearts are filled.

Great leaders of our church and great men of our day instruct us in spiritual values so that we may plan our lives for service for our Savior. These moments of worship together inspire us to be more like Christ.

CHRISTIAN WORKERS ASSOCIATION

"Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel . . ." is a challenge accepted and carried out by the Christian Workers Association.

The purpose of the Association is to preach the gospel to all the needy whether they be in the hospitals, jails, rest homes, juvenile court or on the street corners. This offers valuable training for Christian service. The workers reap both immediate and long-range blessings from this type of service.

DR. LEON CHAMBERS	Sponsor

The Ministerial Association is composed of students called into full-time Christian service. Its purpose is to foster the spiritual life of the college.

Activities include the sponsoring of senior chapel speakers, noonday prayer meetings, the Thanksgiving offering, a book club, and the college spring revival.

MISSIONARY PRAYER BAND

The purpose of the Missionary Prayer Band is to enlighten students to the real need of praying and fasting in behalf of our missionaries.

The activities include various offerings in answer to missionary requests, box-work, and special help for those who are definitely called to the mission field.

The aim is not to lose sight of the need to reap the fields already "white unto harvest."

Paul Andrus is leader of this group, and Marie Peery is sponsor.

TREVECCA MISSIONARY FELLOWSHIP

The TMF is in its second year as an organization. It was formed for the benefit of all students who feel a call to missionary work. Missionaries who visit the campus speak to this group and answer any questions relating to the missionary field and the requirements necessary to be qualified for missionary work. Its main purpose is to develop spirit-filled men and women to serve on the foreign fields of our Church of the Nazarene.

OFFICERS: Paul Hetrick, President; John Clayton, Vice-President; Winifred Davidson, Secretary; John Hall, Treasurer; Brenda Gould, Reporter; Professor K. W. Phillips, Sponsor.

Treve-Tone Trio: Sharon Norrick, Barbara Stiles, and Suzanna McManus.

Jubilaires Trio: Mary Beth Elkins, Lois Conkey, and Lucy Williams.

TRAVEL GROUP

The traveling group is one of the most influential contacts made by Trevecca Nazarene College. These representatives give the prospective student a sample of college life at TNC. These groups are under the direction of the field representative, Rev. C. E. Keys.

Ambassadors Quartet: Al Hayes, Duane West, Sid Riley, and Barney Baggott.

Evangelaires Quartet: Jerry Cook, Carl Taylor, John Sugg, and Jess Middendorf.

A CAPELLA CHOIR

The A Cappella Choir expresses praise and worship to Christ through the medium of song. This desire to honor God is uppermost in the minds of the group. The long hours of practice and time spent in travel are completely balanced by the fun at socials and the adventure of meeting different people on tour.

The Choir makes a two-week tour of the Southeastern Educational Zone every spring besides other public appearances during the year.

The aim of every choir member is to show the spirit of Christ through the songs they sing and the lives they live.

PROFESSOR RAMON UNRUH

MISS BARBARA McCLAIN

TREBLE TONE CHOIR

The Treble Tone Choir is under the direction of Miss Barbara McClain. It is a relatively new organization but growing fast. The special highlight for the choir this year was a one-week tour to Mississippi, Alabama, and Georgia with Rev. C. E. Keys, the Field Representative. They have made other appearances in the Nashville area. Miss Barbara Stiles is the accompanist.

TREVE-DORES

The Treve-Dores is another relatively new singing group under the direction of Professor Ramon Unruh. They have made several public appearances. Ann Van Hook is the accompanist for the group.

Under the leadership of Charlotte Porter, Trev-Echoes has taken on a new look this year. It is now printed on regular newsprint paper, and the general form is more attractive. The paper has presented student life in all its different phases.

The members of the Journalism Class this year do not serve as reporters for the paper as has been done in the past. Although the Journalism Class and the Class Reporters make frequent contributions to the paper, most of the writing is done by columnists and feature writers.

A few of the tasks behind the scenes are assigning articles, proofreading, taking ads, drawing up the dummy and gathering news. We can all say a cheery congratulations for a job well done to the editor, business manager, and all those who make up the staff.

BOB COOK
Business Manager

Al Hayes, photographer, and Patsy Wood, typist, watch Associate Editor Marilyn Baldwin to learn what to do.

Bob Cook and Hugh Smith assist Lynn Barnes in seeing that the papers are properly distributed.

Columnists Billy Jo Richey (Sports), Marita Slifer ("Campus Capers"), and Joe Nell Warhurst (Fashions) work on their stories.

In this modern day what more appropriate theme could be chosen for the 1962 DARDA than that of the Space Age? What better theme for life can Christians choose than that of concentration, consecration, cooperation, and competition, for there awaits for us the greatest commendation, a Crown of Life. Though this is a fast-moving, modern age, aiming for the stars, Christian people have a higher aim which goes beyond the stars. So, we, the DARDA staff of 1962, wish to present to you this yearbook, hoping that you will live in this Space Age for "the One . . . Who is above all."

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is the student advisory organization for our school. Its function is the coordination of student activities with those of the college.

The activities at the beginning of the fall term in September are under the general supervision of the Student Council. At registration time all cars are registered, and the traffic laws are enforced by an active committee.

All campus elections are sponsored by the Student Council. Enthusiasm mounts the highest during the election of the major officers in the spring.

The Council has charge of all class and club organizations. The Class and Club of the Year are selected by a joint Faculty-Council Committee. They are selected according to the point system based on projects and money spent. They also select individual awards. These honors are highly coveted.

The spiritual aspect is emphasized by their choice of a layman for the annual Student Council Lectures in the spring. This year Paul H. Gray, D.D.S., was the lecturer.

Dr. Homer J. Adams, whose advice and assistance are greatly appreciated and needed, is the Student Council Sponsor.

DENNIS HAGE
President

Officers of the Student Council are Denny Hage, President; Don Pitzer, Treasurer; and Dale Melton, Secretary.

The Faculty Advisor, Dr. Homer J. Adams, is a great source of help to the Student Council President, Denny Hage.

The Executive Committee of the Student Council seems to be having a lively discussion.

The Student Education Association, formerly the Future Teachers Club, is an organization formed for the benefit of all students who are education majors or minors and any students who plan to teach. By membership in the club, future teachers can show their loyalty and willingness to accept responsibility which will be expected of them later in regard to professional teachers' organizations. A main and vital function of the SEA is to furnish the members of the club with needed guidance and information in the field of education today.

The Music Club plays a very important role in our school. It is composed primarily of music majors and minors and its purpose is to further the appreciation of music among Trevecca students.

Outstanding highlights of this year's activities were excerpts from "The Messiah," presented as the annual Christmas program, an operetta, "Rip Van Winkle," and the annual spring concert.

Special trips taken this year were to Montgomery Bell State Park, Mammoth Cave, Fall Creek Falls, and the Great Smokey Mountains.

The activities of the Speech Club are directed toward promoting better communication through speech. It is composed mainly of speech majors and minors. The most important activity of the club is the presentation of the all-school play. This year the play, A Man Called Peter, was done exceptionally well.

This created much interest among the student body. Another activity, always enjoyed, was a party at the home of Miss Person.

Roger Costa has served as president of this organization this year and has done the job well. With the help of the other officers and the advice of the co-sponsors the T.A.A. prey has made smooth progress.

The year began with much enthusiasm and each society wanting to win a championship trophy in basketball, football or softball for itself. It is exciting to watch the societies battle for the trophies each season.

The Trevecca Athletic Association also has volleyball, shuffleboard, ping pong, and tennis games for students athletically inclined in those areas. The T.A.A. is a well-organized society and offers sports of interest throughout the year.

Roger, Joy Nell, and Mary Helen are three of the T.A.A. officers.

TREVECCA ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

ALPHA SOCIETY

Football season opened with special enthusiasm as the Alphas began the fight to regain their position as champions, but all to no avail. The Betas earned that position last year and were determined to keep it.

BETA SOCIETY

The Betas kept the idea in mind to maintain their victories of last year not only in football, but in basketball and softball as well. They were well rewarded for their efforts.

DELTA SOCIETY

Even though this football season was not the best the Deltas had seen, they did boot the Alphas from second place and moved from third place to take that position for themselves.

ALPHA FOOTBALL

The Alphas, under the leadership of Bob Cook, worked hard and showed good sportsmanship throughout the football season but could not take the championship for themselves.

BETA FOOTBALL

With an experienced team along with some excellent newcomers, the Betas began the football season with much excitement to maintain their last year's championship. Jimmy Stocks led the team through another victorious season.

DELTA FOOTBALL

Under the leadership of Byron Dollar, captain of the football team, the Delta Society worked hard and was able to take runner-up position for the football trophy.

ALL-STARS

ALPHA GIRLS

The Alpha girls elected Nancy Swafford as their captain and played hard this season in the attempt to remove the Betas from the championship position.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

BETA GIRLS

Under the leadership of Mary Jane Still the Betas aimed for the championship again this year.

DELTA GIRLS

The Delta girls are back this year with Esther Blume as their captain. They hope to move from the lowest to the highest rung on the ladder toward the championship.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

ALPHAS

The Alpha basketball team, whose reign as champion was ended last year by the Betas, is back to reclaim the trophy this year. With Ed Sisson, a former player and leading scorer, as captain, they will give the Betas and Deltas a tough time.

BETAS

The Betas are back this year with the "good ole team" that took the championship last year. Under the leadership of Jimmy Stocks they plan to play hard and maintain their title of champions. Losing Roger Costa to appendicitis hurt them, however.

DELTA

Although they ended the season a little below par last year, the Deltas promise to be a real threat to the Alphas and Betas this year. Under the leadership of Byron Dollar, captain, and with the aid of Paul Shearer, Keith Ketterman, and Larry McCumber, new members of the Deltas' team, they plan to make the race for the trophy a close one.

Paul Shearer scores for the Deltas on a jump shot.

Our faculty members are always ready to help. Wayne Dolar consults Dr. Adams about a problem.

TREVECCA NAZARENE COLLEGE

Education at T.N.C. is more than the process of acquiring knowledge—more than lectures, books, classrooms, and somber facts. It is a period of growth and development, of building for the time when its generation must accept the leadership of the world. That time—the Space Age—has arrived and the forthgoing students of today will be the leaders of this age. Let us then accept this leadership with courage and a determination to rocket to the heights!

NAZARENE PUBLISHING HOUSE

50th ANNIVERSARY

Leaders in the Church of the Nazarene recognized early the need for strong institutions if the church was to effect far-reaching results for Christ. For this reason substantial centers for education and a capable publishing program followed closely the building of churches.

You and your families are the key to this story. As we look together into this golden year of the Publishing House, may we thank you for your support and wish you, the class of 1962, success crowned with God's approval throughout your lives.

As in the past your staff has endeavored to provide everyone with a true representation of life as we have lived it at Trevecca in 1961-62. Although the persons whose names appear below did not sit in classes, attend chapel, eat in the cafeteria nor witness our athletic events, they did contribute to the success and happiness of us who enjoyed these opportunities. They are
